In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms;
  - (e) request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- 10.3 We will require proof of your identity before providing you with details of any personal data we may hold about you.
- 10.4 We try to respond to all legitimate requests within 1 (one) month. Occasionally, it may take us longer than 1 (one) month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you within 1 (one) month of the receipt of your request and keep you updated.
- 10.5 We may charge you a reasonable fee when a request is manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive, or we receive a request to provide further copies of the same data. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

For instance, by law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including contact, identity, financial and transaction data) typically for six years after they cease being customers for tax purposes.
- 16.2 To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.
- 16.3 In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data.
- 16.4 In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.
