Evolution Markets' Carbon and Renewable Energy Groups Named "Best Broker" in 2013 Environmental Finance Survey

White Plains, NY (January 22, 2014): Evolution Markets was named in the 2013 Environmental Finance annual survey as the top brokerage firm in European and North American carbon markets, as well as North American renewable energy markets. The Environmental Finance survey polls active market participants and is considered one of the environmental markets most respected benchmarks.

"Global environmental trading markets underwent significant change in 2013, and this was particularly the case for carbon markets in Europe and the United States and American renewable energy markets," said Andrew Ertel, President and CEO of Evolution Markets Inc. "Throughout the year our brokers dedicated their efforts to guiding customers through regulatory changes, price volatility, and the launch of new programs. We see our Environmental Finance survey results as the top broker in carbon and renewable energy markets as recognition of the high level of service we provide."

Evolution Markets' honors in the annual survey include being named "Best Broker" in the following categories:

- Best Broker, Spot, Futures & Options – EU Emissions Trading Scheme
- Best Broker, Secondary Market – Kyoto Project Credits (JI & CDM)
- Best Broker, North American Carbon Markets (California)
- Best Broker, North American Carbon Markets (RGGI)
- Best Broker, Renewable Energy Certificates (North America)

"On behalf of all our employees across Europe, North America, and Asia, we express appreciation to our customers and peers for their support in important industry benchmarks such as the Environmental Finance survey. We look forward to continue serving the marketplace in 2014," added Mr. Ertel.
